

Bluffton Police Department Oath of Office

A large, faint watermark of the Bluffton Police Department badge is centered in the background. The badge is shield-shaped with a yellow border. Inside the shield, the word "BLUFFTON" is written in large, yellow, sans-serif capital letters across the top. Below it, in smaller yellow capital letters, is "SOUTH CAROLINA". At the bottom of the shield, the year "1903" is written in yellow. The background of the badge is a light blue and white pattern.

“I do solemnly swear: I will support, protect and defend the Constitution and Government of the United States and of the State of South Carolina; I will render strict obedience to my supervisors and observe and abide by all orders and regulation prescribed by them. I will maintain strict, punctual and constant attention to my duties; I will abstain from all offensive personality or conduct unbecoming a police officer; I will perform my duties fearlessly, impartially and with all due courtesy and I will and faithfully perform the duties of a Law Enforcement Officer. So help me God.”
